RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

Food Safety Economics

- Estimated foodborne-illness source attribution, health burden, and economic cost for leafy greens, producing commodity-specific national estimates. Output: Journal of Food Protection. [USDA NIFA SCRI-funded collaborative research]
- Quantified consumer and market responses to produce-safety outbreaks using NielsenIQ retail-scanner data and Google Trends as a risk-perception proxy. Output: Food Policy. [Independent doctoral research]
- Estimated the economic burden of foodborne disease from electronic health records. Output: European Journal of Health Economics. [OSU SEEDS-funded collaborative research]
- Developing a Bayesian Dirichlet-Multinomial framework for source attribution of Cyclospora cayentanensis that weights simple and complex outbreak evidence. Output: Working paper under review. [Independent postdoctoral research]
- Modeled consumer responses to Cyclospora outbreaks in the U.S. bagged-salad market. Output: Manuscript in revision. [Independent postdoctoral research]

Household Food Waste and Sustainable Food Systems

- Modeled Theory of Planned Behavior associations with short-term food waste change across behavioral segments and food types in a 14-day citizen science panel. Output: Food Quality and Preference. [IFWASTE project, funded by FFAR Food Waste Challenge / USDA NIFA Hatch]
- Characterized daily volatility and stability patterns of household food waste using a citizen science panel. Output: Waste Management. [IFWASTE]
- Identified household food waste segments through clustering on planned-behavior constructs and shopping characteristics. Output: Foods. [IFWASTE]
- Examining food-type-specific shopping interventions for household waste reduction using a Bayesian mediation framework. Output: Working paper under review. [IFWASTE · 2025–Present]
- Key Personnel. Built IMPLAN input-output models quantifying local-procurement multipliers for university dining systems and co-wrote the full proposal. Output: USDA SARE Southern Region proposal (funding pending). [USDA SARE Southern Region, Farm and Sea to Campus · funding pending]
